It's warm, soft, large, heady, but light and airy. It is ideal as a "heart" for flower arrangements with exotic color. Gardenia Wilde began to flower in the lapel of his coat sunflower. He was a follower of John Ruskin with his doctrine of the indissolubility of life and art. Yellow flower was the living symbol of this doctrine. A few years later a sunflower turns green carnation - as a symbol of "what can not be," as a brand name of the Wilde Sunflower. Download ppt "i. i. Oscar Fingal O'Flah
