“The Future of Happiness gave me tactical tips in the first few minutes and a genuinely happier life by the end. In an age of endless interruptions, this book couldn’t have arrived at a better time.” Neil Pasricha, New York Times bestselling author of The Happiness Equation and The Book of Awesome. “Volumes have been written about how bad technology can be for us, but Amy Blankson is the first author I’ve seen to lay out a simple, achievable path to explain how to stay grounded and balanced in the digital era. I am so happy to see Amy address the link between technology and happiness. This book is long overdue for both professionals and parents, and I’m sure will be wonderfully received globally.” John Stix, public speaker and founder of KidsWifi. In The Future of Happiness author Amy Blankson argues that there is a “middle path” between technological overwhelm and technological obsession. That is the subject of “The Future of Happiness: 5 Modern Strategies for Balancing Productivity and Well-Being in the Digital Era”, this book offers a better path for people who want to keep up with technology without feeling overwhelmed by it. Technology has moved faster than any one could ever imagine, causing stress and feelings of anxiety in many of us, technophobe and tech geek alike. The Future of Happiness: 5 Modern Strategies for Balancing Productivity and Well-Being in the Digital Era is a guide to eliminating this stress. With the book’s principles, readers learn how to use technolog
