“The new feminism is not just the revival of a serious political movement for social equality,” the feminist theorist Shulamith Firestone announced flatly in 1970. “It is the second wave of the most important revolution in history.”

Woman in a sexist society. Edited by Vivian Gornick and Barbara K. Moran. Basic Books, cloth, $12.50.

A young woman described on the cover of a recent issue of New York magazine as “the Suburban Housewife Who Bought the Promises of Women’s Lib and Came to the City to Live Them” tells us what promises she bought: “The chance to respond to the bright lights and civilization of the Big Apple, yes. The chance to compete, yes. In 2015 she founded Human Liberation, to assist in the big transformation now happening on Earth, raising the human collective consciousness, releasing ourselves from the programming of the 3 dimensional matrix and bringing us into a new paradigm/experience. Through her own journey and life, her mission is to show how reality is always a materialization and a vibrational response of the thoughts and feelings we consciously or unconsciously hold inside, and that it is through evolved awareness of these mental and emotional patterns that we’ll be able to shift, transform and ascend into the
