In early 1945 he revived an ancient Russian demand for partnership with the Turks to control the straits. Again, during the war FDR and Churchill had assured Stalin that Russia was "justified" in having access to the Mediterranean, particularly since Turkey had collaborated with Hitler.¹² And again, as in Iran, by 1945 the British and Americans had changed their minds. They were determined to keep the Soviets away from the Mediterranean.Â Notes on Cabinet Meetings, 1945-1946, White House File, Truman Library. 44

America, Russia, and the Cold War, 1945-2002 propagate Stalinist dogma, and deify the dictator himself. The name of Andrei Zhdanov soon became synonymous with this campaign. 1945-1946: Creation of Eastern European People's Republics Between November 1945 and December 1946, a number of the coalition governments established in the Eastern European countries occupied by Soviet troops during the war transformed into Communist "People's Republics" with strong ties to the Soviet Union. These included Yugoslavia (November 1945); Albania (January 1946); and Bulgaria (December 1946). The United States and Britain considered this an abrogation of agreements made at the Yalta Conference.Â July 1975: Apollo-Soyuz Mission The United States and the Soviet Union conducted the Apollo-Soyuz Test Project, a joint space effort culminating with a linking of the two crafts, in July 1975.

His prophetic voice echoed in the American culture from the Thirties until the Sixties and beyond. At the same time, statesmen and public opinion found in his political theory an essential contribute both for reflection and action. However, the protestant theologian suffered a harsh contrast by scholars, in particular by the positivist ones. This article analyses the path of Niebuhr's international political thought across the "Great Debates" of IR. From the First "mythical" debate until the last and still open one, it examines the role of Niebuhr's Christian realism in the development of the
