The first step to surfing: Riding prone. Catching and riding prone (on your belly) in the whitewater is the first step to surfing. This step serves mainly to help you get used to the board. You'll notice that after a wave breaks it creates a wall of whitewater that rushes in towards shore. Some people need some extra time in the whitewater, and some might poo-poo it and say it's stupid, but everyone should spend at least a little time in the whitewater. Take your board under your arm and walk the board out into the water. Once you get to about waist high water you can rest the board on the water.

Surf Ride is an album by saxophonist Art Pepper featuring sessions from 1952-54 which was originally released as a 12 inch LP on the Savoy label in 1956. The Allmusic review by Scott Yanow observed: "The music on this Savoy LP is quite brilliant, but the packaging leaves something to be desired. The somewhat random nature of this set is unfortunate, for Pepper is in superior form throughout". All compositions by Art Pepper except where noted. "Tickle Toe" (Lester Young) - 2:55. "Chili Pepper" - 3:00.
