

Is It Red, Is It Yellow Is It Blue?

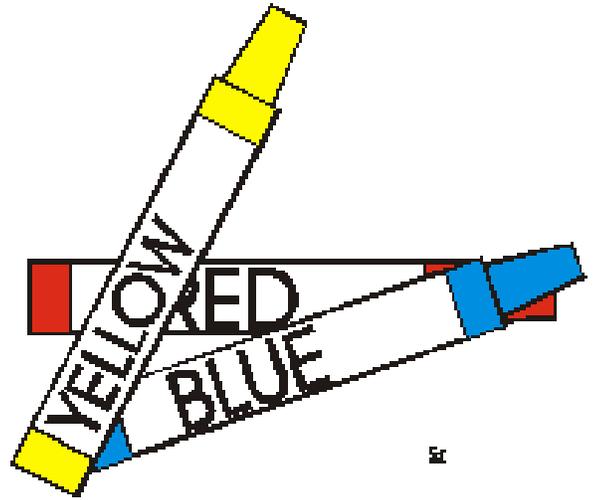

By Tana Hoban

What is the story about?

This is a book about colors. It has few words. Children look at the pictures and guess the colors. It helps them learn colors.

Before you read the book.

Tell the children that you will be reading a different book.
They must look at the pictures to find different colors.
Show children the pictures from the book.
Ask them "Is it red? Is it yellow?
Is it blue?"

After you read the book.

Ask which color they like best.
Have them find other objects in the room that are the same color as those in the pictures.
Have them tell the story back to you.

Things to do together.

Read the book again when children want

Go on a Color Hunt

- Go on a color hunt with the children.

- Walk around the room or neighborhood.
- Find all the things you can see that are red.
- Have the children tell you what each thing is.
- Write it down on a piece of paper.
- Do the same for yellow and blue things.
- Count how many things of each color you found.

Colorful Paint Bags

- Take a large food storage bag that can be closed again.
- Take red, yellow and blue paint (not harmful if swallowed).
- Have children take a spoonful of one color of paint.
- Close the bag and let children squash the paint around.
- Have them add another color.
- Close the bag.
- See what happens when the colors are mixed.

Do You Want To Be My Friend?

By Eric Carle

What is the story about?

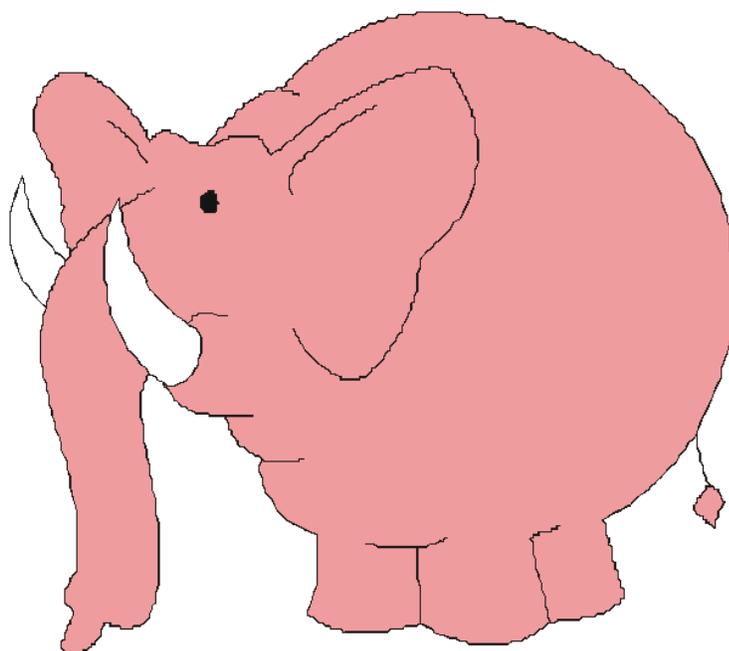

A mouse looks for a friend. It asks many animals. In the end, the mouse finds a friend.

Before you read the book.

Show children the cover of the book.

Ask what animal it is.

Ask if the elephant would be their friend.

After you read the book.

Talk about the animals in the book.

Ask which animal they liked best.

Ask which animal they would want for a friend.

Have them tell the story back to you.

Things to do together.

Read the book again when children want

Your Own "Do You Want To Be My Friend?" Book

- Have children imagine they are a special mouse.
- Ask about what animals they might ask to be their friend.
- Have them draw pictures of the different animals they would ask.

- Make your own "Do You Want To Be My Friend?" book.
- Staple the pictures together.

Friendship Mobile

- Have children cut out three or four fun shapes from colored paper.
- Write the name of one of your child's friends on shape. (Younger children may need your help.)
- Punch a hole in each shape.
- Tie a string (4 to 8 inches long) to a clothes hanger.
- Tie one of the friendship shapes to string.
- Tie other shapes to hanger.
- Hang the mobile in children's rooms.

One Frog Too Many

By Mercer and Marianna Mayer

What is the story about?

Big Frog is not happy. Little Frog has joined his happy family. Guess what happens next?

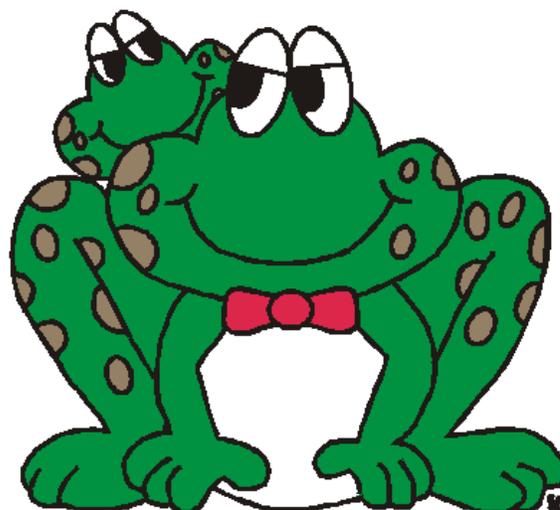

Before you read the book.

Do children have a new brother or sister?

Do they have new friends?

Have they lost friends?

Ask how they feel about these changes.

After you read the book.

Ask how big frog felt.

Where did those feelings get him?

How did the boy feel?

Have them tell the story back to you.

Things to do together.

Read the book again when children want

Play Cooperative Games

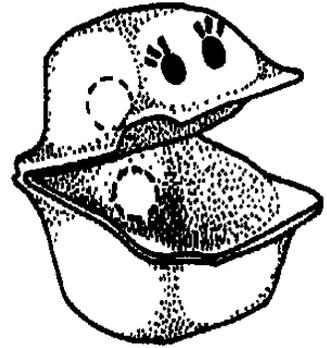

- Play group games with children, such as:
 - London Bridge
 - Jump Rope
 - Human Pyramid

- Talk about how playing together is good.

Egg Carton Frogs

- Make frog puppets.
- Cut an egg carton into two-cup sections.
- Fold each section in half. Make sure the tops of the cups are touching.
- Put a finger hole in top and bottom cups.
- Children put fingers in holes to make it talk.
- Have them draw eyes and face.

Have You Seen My Cat?

By Eric Carle

What is the story about?

A little boy looks for his cat. He finds all kinds of cats. But none of those cats are his cat. At last he finds her.

Before you read the book.

Look through the book yourself, first.
Ask children if they have a cat.
Ask if they know anyone else who has a cat.
Talk about what cats look like.
This book is about a lot of different cats.

After you read the book.

Ask what kinds of cats they saw in the book.
(The names of the cats are in the front of the book.)
Ask what happened when the boy found his cat.

Things to do together.

Read the book again when children want

Cat Naps

- This game helps children relax.
- Have children pretend they are cats.
- They get on their hands and knees.

- First, tell them to arch their back up high like a cat. Then they yawn.
- Next, have them stretch their front legs (arms). They yawn again.
- Then they stretch their back legs. They yawn again.
- Then they lie down and curl up like a cat. They close their eyes.

Hide and Seek Cat

- Children can draw a picture of a cat.
- They hide it from you.
- Ask "Have you seen my cat?"
- Look for the cat.
- Keep asking, "Have you seen my cat?"
- Keep playing until you find the cat.
- Take turns hiding and finding the cat.

Is It Blue? is a concept book that takes the reader on a colorful (literally) journey throughout the city. Each photograph has circles underneath which let the reader know which colors are there. This book focuses on other colors besides red, yellow, and blue, green, purple, and orange play a roll as well. The repetition concept is a great way for children to learn their colors. The wordless photographs allow each reader to tell their own. Intended for ages four to eight, Is it Red? Is It Yellow? Is It Blue? is a concept book that takes the reader on a colorful (literally) journey throughout th Is It Blue? from Walmart Canada. Shop for more Children's & Kids' Books available online at Walmart.ca.Â If you buy something online but it's not everything you dreamed it to be, no worries! We're here for you.â€°Return policy. You can return this item within 90 days from the day you receive your online order. There are two easy ways to return this item: Return this item to a Walmart store. Return this item by mail. If you wish to download it, please recommend it to your friends in any social system. Share buttons are a little bit lower. Thank you!Â 13 yellow white green blue red 2 yellow 1 3 white green blue red 5 6. 14 What colour is the umbrella? yellow. 15 What colour is the snake? green. 16 What colour is the box? blue. 17 What colour is the fish? red. 18 What colour is the sheep? white. 19 Which colour do you like?