The Night Before Christmas Napoli St. Croix

This a never ending story about Christmas. It is riveting and extraordinary that Children and adults alike around the world will be able to identify themselves. The twits in this storybook are incredible that defy the gravity of storytelling. Ordinarily, Santa Claus delivers these gifts, but, no...no...not in this story ! Guess who is coming this Christmas to deliver those gifts. They travel faster than sound !!!!!The sound effects could be heard as the storytellers, teachers, and parents read them aloud to their listeners, students, and children. Children will learn how to put sound effects as they read them aloud or silently. It goes like this.... In light speed...they zzzzzzoom...oom,,,zzzzzzoom...oomm, as the gifts are delivered....and of course.. it ends... Merrryyy. Christmas and to all a Good Night !!! written on the clouds in a starry night. It is magical, enchanting and fascinating, and brilliantly written.

"Twas the night before Christmas, and all through the house, Not a creature was stirring, not even a mouse. The stockings were hung by the chimney with care "A Visit from St. Nicholas", more commonly known as "The Night Before Christmas" and "'Twas the Night Before Christmas" from its first line, is a poem first published anonymously in 1823 and later attributed to Clement Clarke Moore, who claimed authorship in 1837. The poem has been called "arguably the best-known verses ever written by an American" and is largely responsible for some of the conceptions of Santa Claus from the mid-nineteenth century to today. It has had a massive effect on the history of Christmas, when all through the house Not a creature was stirring, not even a mouse; The stockings were hung by the chimney with care In hopes that St. Nicholas soon would be there; The children were nestled all snug in their beds, While visions of sugar-plums danced in their heads; And mamma in her kerchief, and I in my cap, Had just settled our brains for a long winter's nap. Dash away! Dash away all! As dry leaves that before the wild hurricane fly, When they meet with an obstacle, mount to the sky; So up to the house-top the coursers they flew, With the sleigh full of Toys, and St. Nicholas too. And then, in a twinkling, I heard on the roof The prancing and pawing of each little hoof.
