A strategic marketing course from business management schools is a good way to get the necessary toolkit for creating the best marketing strategies. Many executive MBA programs also include strategic marketing in their curriculum. Business classes from top international business schools can be particularly helpful. Not only do these provide marketing managers with the latest developments in marketing, but also in the global business environment as a whole. Pricing strategy is dynamic in nature and should reflect changing condition in competition as well as the market. Overall price strategies follow six step model which is discussed in this article. Marketing mix for companies comprises of 4 Ps Product, Price, Place and Promotion. Price is directly related to bottom-line of any business. Profitability of product is required for future operation of the company. Price strategy should communicate to the customer the value company is providing. There is innumerable price related challenges in the market for companies. Furthermore, with the advent of internet customer awareness for pricing information has improved. Sites like Priceline and eBay are encouraging customer to name their price for products as well as services.
