The God's Word Translation (GW) is an English translation of the Bible translated by the God's Word to the Nations Society. The God's Word Translation of the Bible was produced by the God's Word to the Nations Bible Mission Society (www.godsword.org) in Cleveland, Ohio (although since April 2005 the Society has relocated to the Jacksonville, Florida, metro area). Although many of its board members were affiliated with the Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod (LCMS), the Society has no official ties to this. All Scripture is breathed out by God and profit-able for teaching, for reproof, for correction, and for training in righteousness, that the man of God may be competent, equipped for every good work. (2 Tim. 3:15-17). And we have something more sure, the prophetic word, to which you will do well to pay attention as to a lamp shining in a dark place, until the day dawns and the morning star rises in your hearts, knowing this first of all, that no prophecy of Scripture comes from someone's own interpretation. For no prophecy was ever produced by the will of man, but men spoke from God as they were... In fact, it is the main engine propelling the biblical narrative forward. The thing at issue in the biblical story is always the word of God. The English translation of the Greek/Hebrew words in Vine's follow the King James version. In many cases, newer translations do not translate the words the same. Having this index would allow you to find what word Vine's is using and navigate to it. My solution to this is to look up the passage in my Kindle KJV and find the word there and then go to Vine's and navigate to the word. It would be much more convenient if the index were there instead of end-note references. The work also provides a Topical Index alphabetized in English. In this regard allow me to humbly suggest to accompany the study of bible words with prayer to God to write His words in our hearts and minds and bestow on us the mind of God through His Holy Spirit. 4 people found this helpful.
