[St. Michael's 1st Floor Reference Area – BR 67 .Q37]

MAJOR COLLECTIONS (ORIGINAL LANGUAGE)

Patrologiae cursus completus. Paris: Migne, 1844-1880.

[Series graeca, 161 volumes, Pontifical Institute 4th Floor – BQ 310 .M34]

[Series latina, 221 volumes, St. Michael's 3rd Floor – BR 60 .M4 1844]

[Series latina available online for UofT use: <http://www.library.utoronto.ca>]

In spite of the fact that the two series published by Jacques-Paul Migne are over a century old, they remain the most comprehensive collections of patristic texts. Greek works are accompanied by Latin translations. Unfortunately the texts which Migne collected and reprinted were not always the best available; there are also numerous typographical errors.

Library of Latin Texts.

[Available online for UofT use: <http://www.library.utoronto.ca>]

The largest database of writings in Latin including all of the fathers as well as many medieval and even Counter-Reformation theologians. Series A is texts published by Brepols in Corpus Christianorum: Series latina (St Michael's 3rd Floor – BQ 310 .C6) and Continuatio medievalis; Series B is texts published by other publishers.

Corpus Christianorum : Series graeca. Turnholt: Brepols, 1977-present.

[Pontifical Institute of Mediaeval Studies Library – BQ 310 .C85]

Corpus Christianorum is designed to supplant Migne's Patrologia with new critical texts, as well as to make available works not found in Migne. Presently this series only includes a small percentage of the texts available in Migne; but these texts are far superior in quality and include a critical apparatus.

Sources chrétiennes. Paris: Cerf, 1942–present.

[Pontifical Institute of Mediaeval Studies Library] (each volume catalogued separately)

Original language versions with a French translation. Each volume is classified separately; check the online catalog to find a particular author and work.

MAJOR COLLECTIONS (ENGLISH TRANSLATIONS)

Each of these sets provides English language translations of a selection of patristic texts. None of them provides the comprehensive coverage of Migne's Patrologia. Use the bibliographies in Quasten's Patrology to find out if a particular patristic work has been translated in one of these sets.

Ancient Christian Writers : The Works of the Fathers in Translation. Paulist, 1946–present. 61 volumes and growing.

[St. Michael's – each volume catalogued separately]
