The original idea for The War of the Worlds came from his brother during one of these walks, pondering on what it might be like if alien beings were suddenly to descend on the scene and start attacking its inhabitants.[17]. Much of The War of the Worlds takes place around Woking and the surrounding area. The initial landing site of the Martian invasion force, Horsell Common, was an open area close to Wells's home. In the preface to the Atlantic edition of the novel he wrote of his pleasure in riding a bicycle around the area, imagining the destruction of cottages and houses he saw, by the Welcome to The War of The World's Wiki!, Explore the universe of The War of The Worlds!, Learn about the history of the story!, The Original BookGo to learn about the novel that started it all!, The War of The Worlds RadioGo to learn about Orson Welle's radio broadcast that scared America half
